

Seeking New Volunteer Tutors Interested in Crossing Cultures!

The New Faces of Northeast Ohio School Students...

City neighborhoods across Cleveland are fast becoming a diverse cross-section of cultures, languages and nations. As immigrants and refugees make Northeast Ohio their new home, they seek partners and friends who will support the growth and safety of their families.

Nations in Africa

The Middle East

Southeast Asia

Building Hope in the City's After-School Tutoring/Literacy Programs for Refugee Students

- ◆ Program starts in October / Volunteer meetings start in late September.
- ◆ Afternoon time commitment (3:30 to 5:30 pm, once or twice a week).
- ◆ A one-on-one (student to tutor) ministry.
- ◆ Opportunities to work with students of all ages and adults.
- ◆ Two locations: Mt. Calvary Lutheran Church (West 129 and Lorain Avenue) and St. Colman Catholic church (West 65th Street and Lorain Avenue).

Want to learn more?

Contact Amy Mitchell, Director of Volunteers, at (216) 281-4673 or amy@buildinghopeinthecity.org.

Vibrant city neighborhoods... renewed and new congregations...passionate followers of Jesus...it's all possible.
Come and see!